TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Vienna, 23rd.—The apprehensions caused by the Russian military movements on the frontier continue.

The latest advice from Warsaw says that the troops have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to cross the frontier at any moment, and to be able to repel the communications with Prussia in full force.

News from Eastern Siberia reports

a great ferment there owing to some misunderstanding, forcing the Buddhists to embrace the Orthodox religion.

The latest report is that the Government has received assurances from Russia that the movements of troops are not a hostile intent.

London, 23rd.—The miners' strike over, and many of them have returned to work.

Paris, 23rd.—Barbier, the famous bronze founder, officer of the Legion of Honor, has just died, aged 62.

Madrid, 23rd.—The Minister of Colonies declared to-day in the Chamber in reference to the Budget for Cuba, that it could bear 30 millions expenditure, and the present estimated outlay did not exceed $3 millions.

Berlin, 23rd.—The Cabinet crisis is still the theme in all political circles.

The Emperor and General Caprivi have held several interviews, and His Majesty has summoned his Chancellor to Berlin, and also von Bülow, Vice President of the Council of Ministers.

It appears from Caprivi's declarations that the Chancellor is determined to settle the crisis as speedily as possible, and to this end will postpone the discussion of the Education Bill until the country has pronounced its opinion of it.

Paris, 23rd.—Waiting for the general elections, Caprivi will resign his policy and try to recover his prestige.

Athens, 23rd.—It is stated on good quarantineat MARTIN GARCIA.

There was a time when the mention of Martin Garcia was extremely unpleasant, and happy to say that it is now,

without exception, the best fondled and most agreeable quarantine station in the world. We have been visited by numbers of passengers who arrived recently per M. S. Thames and other vessels, and all unite in speaking in the highest terms of the treatment shown them in the quarantine.

Nothing could exceed the civility and courtesy of the officers and employees;

the food was excellent and well cooked, and no effort was spared to make passengers as comfortable as possible. The officers of the garrison lent a piano, and dances were got up every evening.

In the passenger's lounge the officers and officers played cards, and "all went merry as a marriage bell." The officers got up picnics for their guests. In a word everybody felt in a manner sorry when the time arrived for leaving the hospital island.

Our old and valued friend, Mr. H. B.

Callender, at present in Her Majesty's service and some years ago an estancia resident in Entre Rios, was of the party, and he favored us with the following verses:

On the Island of Quarantine.

On an island, a fair island

Far away from ocean's brine,

Once there dwelt a merry party

There detained in Quarantine,

There, in the moonbeams through the trees

Chorus—

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

No so weary quarantine,

On the Island of Quarantine.

On an island, a fair island

Far away from ocean's brine,

Once there dwelt a merry party

There detained in Quarantine,

There, in the moonbeams through the trees

Chorus—

No so weary quarantine,
